The Patriarch Athenagoras Orthodox Institute is an inter-Orthodox endeavor, representing the diversity of Orthodoxy and an integral part of the Graduate Theological Union (GTU), an interfaith consortium of theological schools and institutes from world religions and traditions. Represented at the GTU are: Christian faiths of Catholic, Protestant and Eastern Orthodox denominations; Jewish faiths; Muslim traditions; Buddhist philosophies; a Science and Religion Institute; a library and museum. We teach and explain Orthodox perspectives through courses and a 2-year Master of Arts degree in Orthodox Christian Studies. (www.orthodoxinstitute.org).
